

Commonly Used CME Evaluation Items

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
The course achieved its educational objectives
The course was relevant to my learning needs
The course validated my current practice
I plan to change my practice based on what I learned in the course
The faculty presented sufficient scientific evidence to support the content presented
The course was free of commercial bias toward a particular product or company
The course presented a balanced view of clinical options
The method of instruction was conducive to learning					